Executive Summary

19001 Hamilton Pool Road is a 1.83-acre land opportunity strategically positioned in the core of the Dripping Springs growth corridor. The property is located just west of the signalized intersection of Ranch Road 12 and Hamilton Pool Road, one of the most prominent and highly trafficked intersections serving Dripping Springs and the greater Southwest Austin market.

This immediate proximity to Ranch Road 12 provides excellent regional connectivity north to Bee Cave and Lakeway and south into downtown Dripping Springs, making the site well-positioned for future residential, service, or commercial-oriented development.

Market Overview

DRIPPING SPRINGS

Dripping Springs, often referred to as the “Gateway to the Hill Country,” is experiencing remarkable growth, evolving from a quaint rural town into a vibrant community. Its proximity to Austin, combined with scenic landscapes, top-rated schools, and a strong sense of community, has made it an increasingly desirable place to live and invest. The population has more than doubled since 2020, reaching over 11,000 residents in 2025, with projections indicating continued expansion.

Economy

Dripping Springs boasts a robust local economy, underpinned by a diverse mix of small businesses, tourism, and agriculture. The area is renowned for its wineries, distilleries, and wedding venues, attracting visitors year-round. Additionally, its proximity to Austin provides residents with access to a broader job market while maintaining a serene Hill Country lifestyle. The city’s infrastructure is keeping pace with growth, exemplified by the planned expansion of the H-E-B store to a 150,000-square-foot facility, reflecting confidence in the area’s economic trajectory.

Real Estate

Residential: The residential real estate market in Dripping Springs is thriving, with numerous developments underway to meet the growing demand. Projects like Double L (2,408 lots) and Wild Ridge (960 lots) are set to offer a variety of housing options, from single-family homes to rental communities. The area’s appeal is further enhanced by its excellent school district, low crime rates, and family-friendly atmosphere.

Commercial: Commercial real estate is also on an upward trajectory, with new restaurants, retail spaces, and medical facilities emerging to cater to the expanding population. Developments along Highway 290, including the LedgeStone development and Belterra Village, are attracting national chains and local businesses alike. These commercial ventures not only enhance the quality of life for residents but also present lucrative opportunities for investors seeking to capitalize on the area’s growth.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH – INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
